The group, ages 25 to 35, will visit The Florida Aquarium, Ybor City, Lowry Park Zoo and Caladesi Island in Pinellas County. They will dine at the Pelagia Trattoria and Columbia restaurants in Tampa and spend the night at the Renaissance Tampa Hotel at International Plaza.

The Friendstour 2009 group does its own filming and lighting, said Mary Lou Janson, a local public relations representative who is helping coordinate the event.

Their experiences will be aired over 15 episodes on satellite television, the Web and social networking sites.

Reporter Ted Jackovics can be reached at (813) 259-7817.
